Karlovy Vary - Guide tour in centre

Karlovy Vary lies in West Bohemia at the confluence of the Teplá River and the Ohře River, about 120 km west of Prague. It is the largest and best known spa city in the Czech Republic. The city was founded in the 14th century by Charles IV. According to a legend, the Emperor had the city built soon after the accidental discovery of thermal springs by his hunting entourage. The spa facilities enjoyed the favor of many aristocratic houses and rich burghers as early as the 16th century. Owing to a series of natural disasters from that period only a few buildings have been preserved. Most architectonic monuments originated in the 18th and the 19th century when the city lived the „period of plenitude“.

Today, Karlovy Vary is sought after tourist destination. The spa hotels and sanatoriums enjoy the all-year favor of Czech and foreign guest. The tourists who arrive for other than therapeutic purposes can use the broad variety of sports and cultural activities that Karlovy Vary prepares for them. The Karlovy Vary International Film Festival held at the beginning of July attracts visitors like a magnet. Karlovy Vary literally abounds with events, especially during the peak spa season. The city hosts a number of concerts of modern, classical and folk music, theater performances, etc.
